

EU government procurement of 600kW collapsible container

Overview

How do EU institutions use public procurement contracts?

The EU institutions use public procurement contracts to buy services, works and goods, e.g. studies, training, conference organisation, IT equipment. They award public contracts through calls for tender.

What are EU public procurement rules?

All public procurement procedures in the EU are carried out on the basis of national rules. For higher value contracts, these rules are based on general EU public procurement rules. The value limits (thresholds) that mark when EU rules are used depend on the subject of the purchase, and who is making the purchase.

How does EU law affect public procurement?

As part of the single market, EU law sets out minimum public procurement rules to safeguard the core principles of transparency, equal treatment, open competition, and sound procedural management. This creates a competitive, open and well-regulated procurement market to support growth in jobs and investments in the EU.

How are public procurement contracts awarded?

The standard way of awarding contracts is through competitive tendering. Within competitive tendering there are different types of public procurement procedures. In an open procedure anyone may submit a full tender. This procedure is used most frequently.
